*With your lantern, Paul Revere,
 You rode miles around,
 "One if by land,"
 "Two if by sea,"
 Spreadin alarm thru ev'ry town.
 You warned us then of danger that was near,
 We need another warning, Paul Revere.*

*Chorus:
 Paul Revere, Paul Revere,
 Won't you ride for us again?
 Won't you ride thru each hamlet, village, and farm?
 Rice, Paul Revere, and spread the alarm,
 Paul Revere, Paul Revere,
 You're a mem'ry we all hold dear.
 Tho' you've rested for ages on History's pages,
 Ride for us now, Paul Revere.*

*You were answered, Paul Revere,
 On your midnight ride,
 They heard you then,
 Those Minute Men.
 Liberty's call was not denied.
 Today your country need you, can't you hear,
 So ride once more to help us, Paul Revere.*

Chorus

With your lan - tern, Paul Re - vere, —
You were an - noyed, Paul Re - vere, —

You rode miles a - round, "One if by land," "Two if by sea,"
On your mid - night ride, They heard you then, Those Min - ute Men,

Spread - ing a - harm — thru ev - 'ry town You warned us then of Lib - er - ty's call was not de - nied To - day your coun - try dan - ger that was near, We need an - oth - er warn - ing, Paul Re - vere, needs you, can't you hear, So ride once more to help us, Paul Re - vere.

Chorus (Not fast)

Paul Re - vere, Paul Re - vere, Will you ride for us a - gain? Will you ride thro' each ham - let, vil - lage and farm?

Ride, Paul Re - vere, and spread the a - larm; Paul Re - vere, Paul Re - vere,

Were a mem - ry we all hold dear. They've rest - ed for a - - ges on

His - to - ry's pa - - ge, Ride for us now, Paul Re - vere, Paul Re - vere.
