Flag Officer's March

jari villanueva

FLAG OFFICER'S MARCH (Service Call)-Sounded as musical honors for Navy Admirals and Marine Corps Generals. Reference is found in the manuals for the 1949 U.S. Navy and 1969 U.S. Army bands. Originally titled Admirals March, Flag Officer's March is written as a band piece but has a bugle call that is sounded when no band is present. Usually preceded by Ruffles and Flourishes Military members will render a hand salute.
