

tromba a1116

General's March

jari villanueva

GENERAL S MARCH (Service Call)-Sounded as musical honors for a General Officer. This call made be sounded by a band with harmony or by a solo bugler and is usually preceded by Ruffles and Flourishes. Earliest reference is found in the 1874 U.S. Army Infantry manual (Upton Manual). Military members will render a hand salute.