

TATTOO (Service Call)- Sounded in the evening. No formation is required but it is a signal that Lights Out will follow. This type of call dates from 17th century and was used to summon troops back to their garrison for the night roll call.